

Linda West

Medium • Metaphysician • Speaker • Author

Linda West, MA, CATP, one of America's most sought after Psychic Mediums connects with those who have crossed over to answer your questions in her signature, gallery style event. Open to a limited number of people, Linda guarantees everyone a reading. This special event is designed to provide people with the answers, clarity, insight, affirmation and empowerment they seek from connecting with someone who has crossed over.

In addition to connecting with loved ones, with the help of the Angels, Linda elegantly explains what happens to the body after we die, the common stages we experience, such as the viewing of our lives and how we're always met with total & unconditional love from the other side.

Linda provides loving, indisputable encouragement, insight and guidance from those who have passed on. This healing, transformational information has assisted thousands of people to heal, grow, feel affirmed and to obtain the answers needed for guidance and resolve. With the help of the Angels, Linda connects directly with the deceased as they make themselves known and answers your questions. An answer for one is truly an answer for all in these intimate gallery settings.
